

The Fund's Object and Types of its Activities

The object of the Fund as set forth in its reorganizing law, is to assist Arab and other developing countries in developing their economies and to provide such countries with loans required for the implementation of their development programmes. To achieve the said objective, the Fund may adopt such means as its Board of Directors deem appropriate within the limits set forth in its Law and Charter. Such means may include the following in particular:

- ❖ Making loans and providing guarantees,
- ❖ Making Grants by way of technical assistance and providing other types of technical assistance,
- ❖ Subscribing to capital stocks of corporate bodies which are of a developmental character,
- ❖ Contributing to capital stocks of international and regional development finance institutions and other development institutions and representing the State of Kuwait in such institutions.

In exercising the aforementioned functions, the paramount concern of the Fund is to serve the interest of developing countries in achieving economic development.
